MR. TANU LUSIGNAN TO BECOME THE NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE FIRST NATIONS ADULT EDUCATION SCHOOL COUNCIL (FNAESC)

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kahnawake – May 5, 2020 – The First Nations Adult Education School Council (FNAESC) is pleased to announce Mr. Tanu Lusignan as its new Executive Director. Mr. Lusignan has been part of the FNAESC’s management team since 2015 and is the current Chief Financial Officer and holds a bachelor’s in commerce (major in finance) from McGill University.

Tanu is known to many as a leader who values transparency, accountability and an unwavering commitment to providing high quality support to the communities and to the clients they serve. These remarkable qualities will undoubtedly facilitate Mr. Lusignan’s seamless transition into the position of Executive Director.

Mr. Lusignan begins his position as Executive Director for the FNAESC on July 1, 2020.

“Tanu is the right Indigenous leader who will bring high quality adult education services to the next level while respecting community autonomy. He is a humble, reflective leader who works well with partners at all levels.” Rola Helou, FNAESC Executive Director.

About the FNAESC

The FNAESC is committed to providing high quality adult learning environments that focus on culturally relevant student-centered learning in a safe and healthy environment that reflects the values of First Nations and allows the students to gain the necessary knowledge and skills required for their future educational endeavours and employment. The FNAESC supports adult education services in Lac Simon, Kahnawake, Listuguj, Uashat mak Mani-Utenam, Gesgapegiag, Kanesatake, Montreal and Val d’Or.
